

BEALE AFB, CA
UTILITY SYSTEM DESCRIPTION

General Base Description: The following information is only an estimate of the size, scope, and general description of the natural gas utility system at Beale AFB and is subject to change. Beale Air Force Base is an active military installation located 13 miles east of Marysville, CA. The base is located on 22,944 acres of Air Force owned land.

Natural Gas System - Natural gas is supplied to the Beale AFB by Pacific Gas and Electric Company at a single delivery point and who owns a portion of the on-base distribution system. The Air Force owned portion of the system has approximately 61,400 linear feet of piping, 106 isolation valves, and 27 meters. The gas lines are predominately one-inch and four-inch coated and wrapped steel and two-inch PE. . There are approximately 53 natural gas regulators and 27 meters.

The HQ AFCESA/CEOC point of contact is Josh Scott,
(josh.scott@tyndall.af.mil), FAX (850)283-6336.